The Christmas and holiday season is upon us. December saw quite the storm wreak havoc with our monthly meeting, with snow really locking a lot of people down in their homes, for which I certainly do not blame anyone. Me, I was crazy enough, along with about 15 other (foolhardy) souls to try and make our way to the Miller Conference Center. Our guest presenters, the folks at Utrecht, were not able to make it as well. Consequently, it was quite an intimate meeting for us as we shared images on the big screen, talked of art, watercolor, composition, and how cool it was that we had a meeting in spite of the circumstances. We even had treats thanks to our own lovely Barbara Glick who sneaked in some contraband cookies.

Tom Howard

The next Tuesday evening, I was able to make it to the Cache Valley chapter meeting in Logan! and while it was not stormy it was bitterly bitter cold. Still, we had a very enjoyable time together as a group. Those Cache Valley folks really know how to make one feel welcome. I traveled over the mountains west to my parents house, in the Bear River Valley, where I saw temperatures drop down to 0 degrees. Yep, that is the kind of winter I remember growing up in as a kid.

As we go into the first of next year, we have the opportunity to help out the scholarship funds that we have as an organization. The annual state high school art competition will get underway in January, and as March rolls around we will be recognizing two outstanding students for their accomplishments in water media. Your contributions to this cause will be very helpful.

I heard through the grapevine that our own Kristi Grussendorf will be featured in an article in Watercolor Artist Magazine, in the February issue. That is a wonderful accomplishment and we congratulate her for this recognition.

Painting by Tom Howard

Joyce Baron has sent out the results of the Western Federation of Watercolor Societies (WFWS) judging for 2014 in Phoenix. As usual I'll be getting my customary consolation prize of a catalogue "PHHHHHHH." Oh, just kidding. Still, we congratulate Brienne Brown, Dianne Adams, Kathy Sutherland, Kristi Grussendorf, Rebecca Hartvigsen, Sherry Meidell, Spike Ress, and Summer Borla on their acceptance in to this show. We are well represented.

I hope you all have a happy, safe Christmas and holiday season. May the coming new year be filled with health and great painting opportunities. I leave you with my stunning, STUNNING, entry to the WFWS exhibition..be happy my friends, and I'll see you on

Membership Corner

More NEW Members !

Hopefully, by the time you read this, you will also have the new UWS directory in hand. We have had 12 new members and 8 membership renewals since the last newsletter. Welcome new members Jenice Allred, Mary Jane Grow, Kaia Hodgson, Cindy Kamborian, Susan Kendal, Masao Lutz, Gay Meyers, Terry Moss, Karen Rackliffe, Elizabeth Steele, Bonita Tollefson, and Sean Toomey.

If you have any questions on membership, or need to update any of your contact information, be sure to contact our Membership Chair, Reida Fillmore at (435) 512-7217.

Two-Star/Signature Members

You may note in the new directory, members that have achieved Star and Signature status are recognized. If you have achieved Star or Signature Status but it has not been indicated in the directory, be sure to contact our new coordinator, Roxane Pfiser, Roxane.Pfister@usu.edu, with a list of your qualifying paintings and Exhibition showings. Members track their own achievement regarding the number of juried exhibitions and awards achieved, then apply when the appropriate criteria are achieved. Criteria details are in the bylaws in the front of the new directory, or on the UWS website, www.utahwatercolor.org/two_star.html

Stay Informed!

To stay informed and active within our organization, it is important to subscribe to the Constant Contact, UWS account! It is easy and optional and you can unsubscribe at any time. If you are not currently receiving our "blasts," be sure to "get on the list." If you are reading this newsletter online and are not yet registered, you can subscribe right now. Western Federation of Watercolor Societies (WFWS) 2014 Exhibition

There were so many wonderful entries from UWS! We wish for everyone to see them! Cheng-Khee Chee complimented us on how many fine paintings there were and said that he had a hard time limiting his choices to 110. There were over 1100 entries! This year's juried artists from the UWS are: Brienne Brown, Dianne Adams, Kathy Sutherland, Kristi Grussendorf, Rebecca Hartvigsen, Sherry Meidell,

2013 Sandy City Art Show

The Sandy Visual Art Show is a premier, adjudicated art show offering participants the opportunity to publicly exhibit and sell their work as well as vie for cash prizes. The Sandy Visual Art Show highlighted watercolor, oil, acrylic, clay art (pottery or sculpture) and photography creations.

Sherry Meidell Tulips at the Gate

Spike Ress Edge of the Storm

Several UWS members won recognition this year. Shirley Bailey took the 3rd place award with her painting, Flower Market Maiden. Nan Gray, LaVar Swensen, Antoinette Jewett and Colleen Reynolds won honorable mention awards. Colleen Reynolds took home the People's Choice award for Rhapsody in Spring.

Roosevelt City Centennial 2013 Celebration.

Several artists from the Duchesne, Roosevelt, and Vernal areas enjoyed a plein air painting day in watercolor, acrylic, or oil. The regulation was that only the city limits could be used for subject material. Since Roosevelt is a small rural town, it was fun to see the historical sites and landscapes of the city displayed. Roosevelt is coming into it's own in the arts. Deena Millecam came in first place with Roosevelt Proper.

UWS Paint Outs

Painting by Maura Naughton

We have had a wonderful paint out year. It's been hot, cold, wet, dry and always fun. We want to top off our 2013/2014 season with an out-of-town event. Mark your calendar to save June 7th and 8th, and join us for the Capitol Reef retreat. The Entrada Institute of Grover will host us for a group dinner and meditation. The Park will also sponsor us. More info later.

For the January Paint Out, we'll paint Trolley Square again on Saturday, Jan 11th, at 10am.

Volunteers Urgently Needed in Utah Watercolor Society:

1) Publicity Chair

Skills Preferred: Writing skills, Good communication skills, Computer knowledge (Word, Excel, Image manipulation, Social Media). Ann Galt performed this function for 2011 & 2012 and is available to provide written and digital information and orientation. For 2013, no one performs this function. We need a volunteer!

2) Exhibition Reception Refreshments

This person needs to plan for food, serving dishes and utensils, paper goods and drinks. Volunteer will need to set up refreshments as well as clean up afterward. Naomi McNamara has done a wonderful job, but needs to bow out. If you are interested, please contact Mary Pusey, mary.pusey@comcast.net, and we can discuss any questions.

3) Exhibitions Technical Assistant

The UWS needs someone to coordinate digital entries for the Fall and Spring Exhibitions. This job primarily involves accepting and tracking email digital entries for the show. If interested contact Mary Pusey, mary.pusey@comcast.net. Thanks for helping!

International Artist Lian Quan Zhen Comes to Salt Lake

Twenty-seven watercolor painters had the opportunity to learn from Lian Quan Zhen for a 3-day workshop hosted by Colleen Reynolds. Lian took everyone through a simplified method for achieving an original composition. He then demonstrated his watercolor painting process, creating first a composition with Koi, then a painting of grapes. Lian uses only three primary colors to paint his bright and magnificent paintings. He uses cups to pour and his fingers to move the paint, then finishes off with masterful brush strokes, influenced by his Chinese painting background.

Lian "finger painting"

Demo painting by Lian Zhen

Lian Q. Zhen also just had a new book published by Northlight books on landscape painting. Each person who purchased a copy received an original "signature" Chinese-style painting of their choice on the inside cover. Amazing! Thanks Lian for coming to Salt Lake! And thank you for agreeing to return in 2015. Lian's workshops tend to fill far in advance. If interested in having your name on the interest list for his November 2015 workshop in Salt Lake City, contact Colleen Reynolds at colleencrbe@q.com.

Brusho® Demonstration by Colleen Reynolds

Rhapsody in Summer by Colleen Reynolds

Kick off the New Year by discovering a new, exciting and fun watercolor pigment. Watch as Colleen demonstrates the versatility of Brusho®, a crystallized watercolor ink powder, manufactured in England, and recently introduced in the United States.

Colleen has been "playing" with the powder for about nine months now. You may remember her painting, Rhapsody in Summer, from the UWS Fall Exhibition that was created with the pigment. She has been working to understand and manage its striking intensity. Colleen says of Brusho®, "It's like a wild cat...hard to control and rather dangerous, but beautiful once tamed and groomed just a little."

Colleen received a BFA from the University of Utah in painting and drawing, adding to her Master's in Education and Bachelor's in Math. Colleen teaches watercolor and drawing classes. She also hosts monthly workshops with visiting instructors. The classes and workshops are held at 21st Studios in Sugar House. Colleen works in oil and acrylic in addition to watercolor. Her work has been juried in to many local, state-wide and national shows and she has received several awards.

February Meeting, Tuesday, February 4, 2014

Presentation by Joyce Baron

Prepare to enjoy some fabulous color! Be sure to come to the February Member meeting and watch Joyce Baron dazzle us with her colorful abstractions in watercolor and acrylic. Joyce's artistic goal is to capture the spirit and feeling of the unique Western landscape. Her bold colors and shapes express the emotions she views in nature. The dynamic mountain landscape holds a special passion for Joyce because of its abstract qualities and dramatic contrasts.

Joyce is a Past President of the UWS. She has a degree in Art and Photography from Weber State University. Joyce has continued her art education studying with many national and local artists.

Joyce has received many prestigious awards: The Springville Museum of Art, Spring Salon has included Joyce's work several times even recognizing her with a "Merit" Award. She has received several "Best of Show" awards at the Utah Watercolor Society state wide shows. She is a Signature member of the UWS. Joyce also received the "Award of Excellence" in the Western Federation of Watercolor Societies annual show. Her works have been used on the cover of the Sundance catalog and other magazines. She is the Past-President of the Utah Watercolor Society.

News from the North—Cache Valley Chapter

President's Message

Hello from Cache Valley!

Jerry Fuhriman

Cache Valley brings in a new President, Jerry Fuhriman.

The Cache Valley Chapter will really miss the leadership of K Grover but we are happy that her move to Phoenix will bring her closer to her family and much warmer winters.

It really is cold in the north country but being part of the CVC group is like sitting in front of a fireplace with a cup of hot chocolate surrounded by friends. What is it about artists that makes every gathering such a spirited and happy event? I always find it amazing that our watercolor artists can put so much of themselves in every painting and then be happy to let other artists critique their work. What a gift we give ourselves when we are willing to offer suggestions to others and also be willing to have others critique our work.

Art is such a wonderful world...and even in the winter we can sit at our easel with brushes and paints and travel to any destination we desire.

We have almost arrived at "standing room only" at our monthly meeting. We are averaging about 35 members and visitors each month....and why not? The critique sessions are stimulating, the food is terrific, and the presentations are educational and informative.

The highlight of our December holiday party was a surprise event honoring Beverly Byington with a CVC lifetime membership. Beverly has been an active member of CVC since its beginning in 1974. Deanna Hulme and her grand daughters had created a wonderful program of Beverly's amazing art. We saw photos of her watercolor paintings, fabulous quilted artworks and sculptures; and heard tales of her roofing tar paintings. I think Beverly might be the only artist I know who never asked herself "I wonder if I am doing this right?" What creativity and energy! I want to grow up to be just like her! After the presentation we sat in a circle and exchanged gifts of paintings, paints and papers and all things wonderful. So many members helped to make it a very memorable holiday party.

We are excited that Jill Bliesner has agreed to serve as our new vice president. Jill is a longtime member of CVC and a very gifted artist. She will bring many strengths to our board.

Have a great holiday season and be sure and spend time with your brushes and paints.

Logan Library—Jim Bridger Room, 255 North main Street, Logan, UT

Painting on Silk by Sherrill Gordon

Sherrill is an amazing watercolorist using silk as her canvas. Come learn her techniques as she spends a day with us stretching our horizons to embrace a different medium for painting. A long time resident of Cache Valley, Sherrill has become a master at this beautiful, expressive art form.

Spring Workshop:

Suzanna Winton, Realistic Watercolor Portraits

May 1-3, 2014. Will be held at the Logan Hampton Inn, 1665 North Main St., Logan, UT 84341, May 1-3, 2014.

Class Size is limited to 16 people. So sign up early. Suzanna is a nationally recognized artist. Check out her website to see a sample of her work.

This workshop will give us the opportunity to gain experience with painting the nature of people. She starts with the foundation of getting the skin tones correct and will progress through the class with examples that we will emulate as well as having the opportunity to work from our own reference materials. Materials list to be provided after registration.

For all CVC workshops, you can sign up & pay at the CVC Watercolor Society Meeting or mail your check, made out to Brenda Brunello, P.O. Box 265, Providence, UT 84332.
