

Jeannie Millecam Artist Bio

Jeannie Millecam currently lives in Smithfield, Utah, with her husband Kent and their two children. Jeannie began her art education at Snow College, where she studied art under Osral Allred and Carl Purcell. Later, she received an MFA from Utah State University under the influenced of Adrian Van Suchetelen and Glen Edwards. Jeannie has painted in studio for several years, but has recently enjoyed the challenge of painting en plein air, or “in the open air”. Jeannie has taught high school, community classes and workshops for 20 years. She currently teaches watercolor and oil painting at Sky View High School, where her students have received multiple awards and scholarships.